The purpose of this yearbook is to capture the thoughtful, provocative, witty, and sipid experiences of the past year. This job was not done in a day or a week; the care in preparing it was of the greatest intensity; and the fun absorbed from doing a tough, yet interesting task was relaxing and cultivating.

Our refined finished product is what we wish you to treasure. It is hoped that looking between these covers in the years to come will carry your thoughts through the corridors and classrooms, and over the activities that are shown in the following pages. If we achieve these, then we will consider all of our efforts worthwhile.

Susan Mattleson

Our Dedicatee:

Mr. R. H. Cherry

WHAT DID HE SAY TO GET THIS REACTION?

Mr. and Mrs. Cherry with their son, Eugene, relax at home by exchanging ideas and sharing experiences.

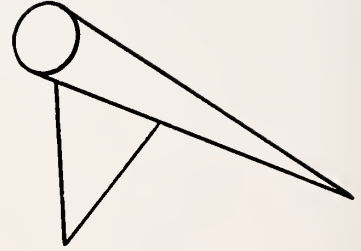

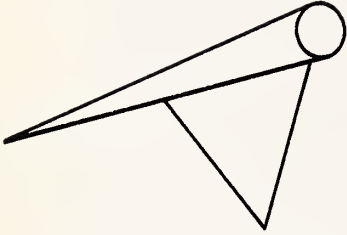

We, the members of the graduating class of 1966 proudly dedicate "THE TROJAN" to Mr. R. H. Cherry, our esteemed principal and unfaltering supporter. By doing so, we hope to express - in some measure - our profound gratitude to and respect for him.

Mr. Cherry has been the principal of W. A. Pattillo High for the past six years, during which time he has initiated improvements which have raised the educational standards of our school and our students.

He has definitely been an inspiration to us. Through his guidance we have become aware of the many opportunities that lay ahead and of the preparation that we must make in order to take our places in the world. We can only say thank you through the efforts put forth in preparing this book in your honor.

THE 1966 SENIOR CLASS

Tribute to Our Sponsors*

Because of admiration for and indebtedness to our Senior Sponsors, Mrs. H. V. Barnett, Miss L. M. Berry, Mrs. M. W. Goodman, and Mr. G. C. Matthewson, we proudly acclaim in this small way our heartfelt appreciation.

Mr. Martin, Superintendent of the Tarboro City School System, has contributed greatly to the educational progress and standard of Pattillo. His boundless energy and active concern have endeared him to all persons who are fortunate enough to have been graced by his acquaintance.

Administration

Mr. Cherry, our Principal, has inspired Pattillo to progress with speed and educational stability. He encourages students to enrich their minds and works diligently to insure that they do. His unselfish devotion is stated in our motto: "The reward of a thing well done, is to have done it." For our indebtedness to him - because of its extent - we regretfully have only gratitude to offer.

Class Song

Tune: Exodus

The future calls; the future's in our hands; we hope success in this great land; Pattillo we thank Thee for the knowledge you've provided us; thou we're leaving now; we'll often meet again.

The day we came, was when our task began; our goal was knowledge for all men; the class of "66" has worked successfully; now our job is done - we go our separate way.

Our hearts are gay, our hearts are also sad; but there's one thing that must be said, To teachers and our friends, we'll always think of you and our Alma Mater we'll remember too: The class of "66", Pattillo High, we are the class of "66"; we say farewell but not goodbye.

Ask anybody, Martha Lewis and Roy Bullock are certainly the "MOST POPULAR" Seniors. With their charm and sparkling personalities, they'll rate in any contest.

Courtesy and tact go hand in hand. They both make for a better man. Bessie Lewis and Jesse Baker are MOST COURTEOUS.

Success is gained by steps, not leaps. Mary Matthewson and Eugene Lloyd, MOST SUCCESSFUL, are well on the way.

If "looks" is a reflection of the inner self, Peggy Lyons and Conferlete Carney should have hearts of gold. They were chosen "BEST LOOKING."

*A Horrible Trick of Fate
an Embarrassing Situation and a Wounded Ego*

I do hereby rightfully and willingly give recognition to those to whom it is due. To Elsie Stith and Jessie Baker, who were chosen as "Most Cooperative", because of their "glad-to-lend-a-hand" natures, and to Brenda Cherry and Clinton Stevens, who, Because of their ability to "do it--and do it well", were chosen as "All Around" I apologize for the absence of their photos, adding that they are still "elite" and that the -----

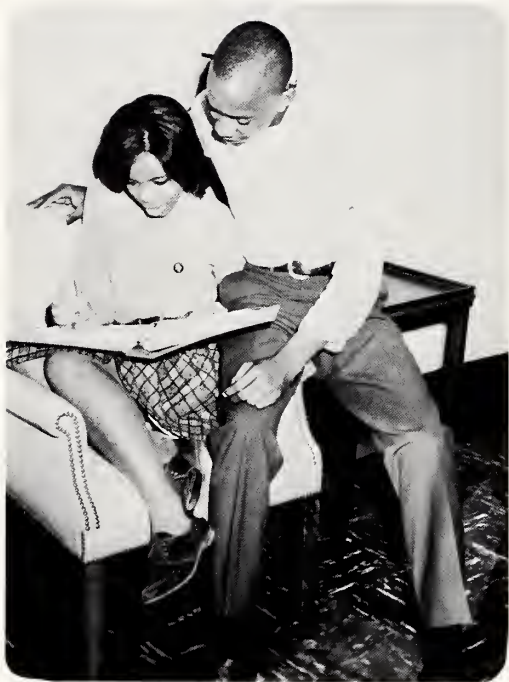

HEY!

Don't Interrupt me!

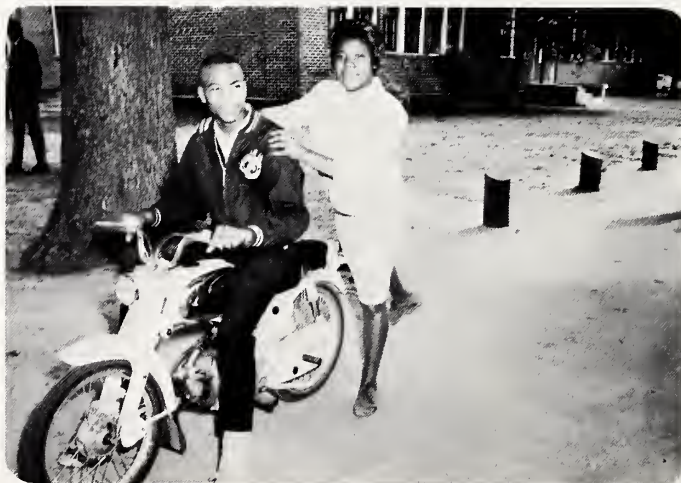

I'm resigned; everybody's against the Seniors--even the Seniors themselves: These pictures don't belong here!

If scholars are students who work hard and get results, Helen Lewis and Eugene Lloyd are certainly two. They were chosen as "MOST SCHOLASTIC."

Janette Williams and Roy Bullock have a "flare" for dressing. Janette is making sure Roy doesn't belie their title of "BEST DRESSED."

To be active in athletics is a good health guarantee. But it was being "good" in them that made Brenda Cherry and Earl Archer "MOST ATHLETIC."

While only the witty can afford to have wit, we all need to laugh a little bit. Joanne Dickens and Johnny Randolph have supplied many a one. They're the "WITTIEST" ones.

"Rain or Shine, Sleet or Snow," Charlotte Strong and Bernard Lyons are on the "go." They're "MOST DEPENDABLE"

Nobody dances like our "BEST DANCERS," Bessie Lewis and Clinton Stephens.

Class History

On May 30, 1962, 128 eighth-graders scrambled to board the ship, the U.S.S. Pattillo that would take us to four exciting, challenging and enriching harbors. We were typical freshmen, goals or objectives meant nothing to us.

We arrived at the first harbor and promptly acquired the title, freshmen and "pepper pots." After many adjustments, we began exploring and participating in activities, a few brave souls even ventured into football. Our stay at this port was chaotic, but brief.

By the time, we reached our second harbor, a few students had been lost to misadventures and there were marked changes in those who returned. Many of us burned thousands of midnight kilowatts preparing biology notes, term papers and solving math problems. We were well-represented in sports, school clubs and band. We celebrated our last night ashore with a cookout.

Seventy-seven sedate, down to earth juniors continued the voyage destined for the third and most memorable harbor. Our greatest achievement in this port was the prom to which we devoted most of our interest, time and energy. The theme was "Tropicana", a masterpiece, indeed. We also produced a very successful play, "The Road." All was not play, for many of us remember those book reports, compositions, the U. S. Constitution and that French . . . Our journey to the fourth harbor was indeed a turbulent one!!!

As we approached the last harbor, there were mixed emotions, thoughts, ideas, for at last we had arrived at our long aspired for goal. Some rushed eagerly ashore; some stood meditating; and others . . . Although we had looked for this moment with anticipation, hopefulness and enthusiasm, our joys of arrival were looped together with tears of departure.

After years of togetherness, we must each go our separate way. And though we were conscious of it through the unveiling of our motto, dedication of our yearbook, class night and graduation, we had found ourselves and set our goals. For we have found that, "The Reward of a Thing Well Done Is to Have Done It."
